THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

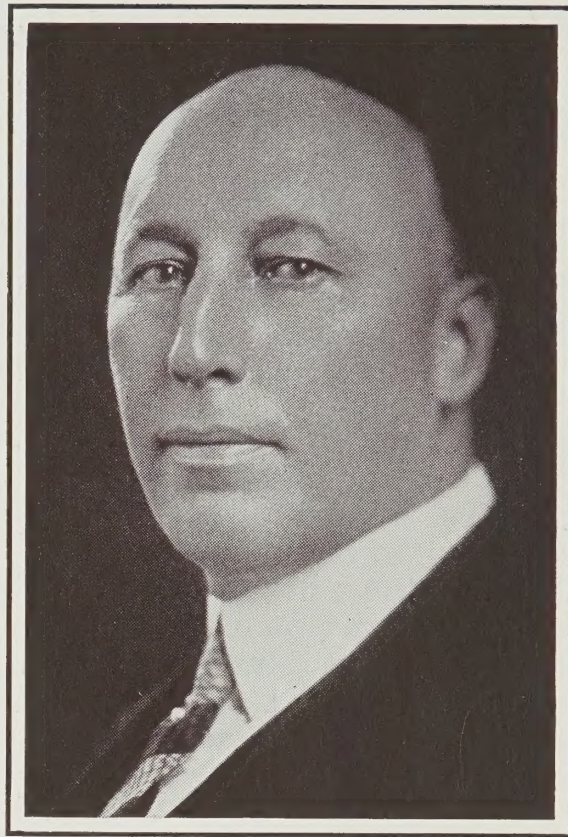

IN the address last year, speaking of the Permanent Collection, we drew your attention to the very limited funds at our disposal. Notwithstanding this handicap, fine progress has been made and the additions to our collection, thanks to the very careful consideration of the Exhibition Committee, are of fine quality. Our friends too have been generous with their gifts; a generosity which is ever welcome, as we have to rely on such gifts to an extent not perhaps realized, for the steady growth so necessary to the Art Gallery. The exhibitions have generally been very interesting and well attended—over 135,000 people coming to the Gallery last year.

For the first time since December, 1934, our total membership is increased, standing at the end of the year at 2,329. This increase is continuing and we are not far short of our highest record. We think you will agree that the greatest praise should go to the Membership Department. Our sympathy should also go to Mr. Baillie, the Chairman of the Committee, who has been ill for some months.

The Educational work has had to be curtailed in accordance with the reduced amount of the Carnegie Grants, but within this limit, has been as fruitful and stimulating as ever. Miss McCullough, in charge during Mr. Lismer's absence in South Africa, has done very good work and has been well supported by her capable and enthusiastic staff. The example set by this part of the Gallery's work has been the means of initiating similar activities all across the Dominion and brings a constant succession of visitors and enquiries to the Gallery. It is not too much to say that we are the only Art Gallery in the whole of the British Empire that is doing such a public and unique work with children and adults and we regard it as a calamity that such contributions to Education should at this time, be severely curtailed or abandoned. While we are a civic institution, our work has produced a marked effect throughout the Province, through circulating exhibitions, in stimulating the formation of art groups and children's classes and in providing information eagerly sought by teachers in the public and private schools. Our most pressing problem is the necessity for a constant supply of funds for this programme. The Carnegie Grants have been given for five years and are now ceasing, and, unless we are content to see work of such vital importance dwindle to insignificance, we must find prompt and unfailing support immediately. We should like again to acknowledge our debt to the Carnegie Corporation for its splendid help, for without it we could only have maintained our educational programme with the greatest difficulty and on a very reduced scale.

HON. VINCENT MASSEY
Hon. President

R. Y. EATON
President

To the Chairmen and members of the various committees, we tender on your behalf, the thanks and appreciation they so much deserve. They are all busy men and we think that no institution is better served or more loyally and unselfishly supported than is the Gallery. This is equally true of the staff whose courtesy in their relations with the members and public cannot be too highly praised and whose efficiency is a credit not only to themselves but to the institution.

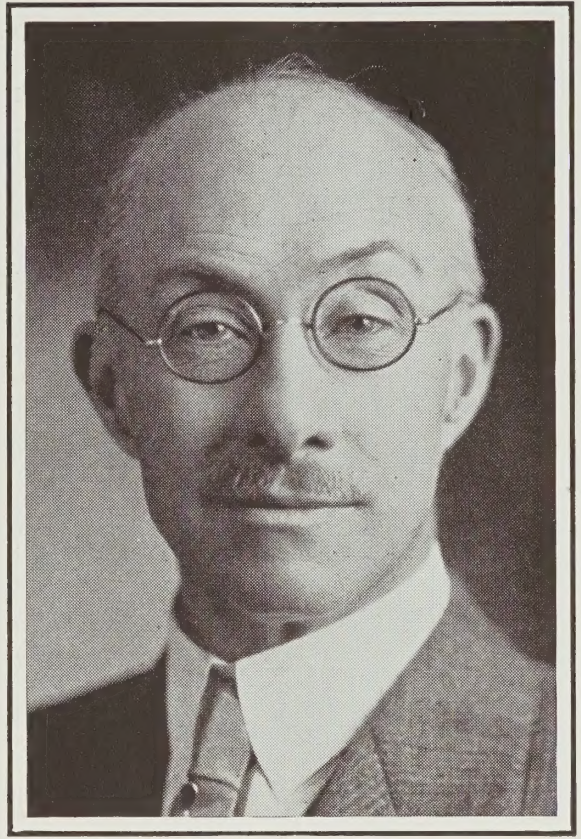

We, as Trustees of a City Institution, are grateful to the Mayor and Council for their interest and support and, while we have not yet succeeded in regaining our $10,000 grant from the City, we hope that, with the general improvement which is apparent in Toronto, our approaches may meet with success in the not too distant future.

Our thanks are due, too, to the Commissioner of Parks for the splendid condition in which his staff keeps the grounds and to the Chief of Police for the invaluable assistance and unfailing courtesy of the members of the Toronto Police Force.

Before closing we should like to say that, while our growth has been steady we have many problems still to solve. We are greatly handicapped by the lack of an adequate auditorium for lectures, ceremonial occasions, and showing moving pictures. We need, too, a new wing of offices to house the staff. The Grange, besides being inconvenient for office use, should, we think, be returned as nearly as possible to its original state as an example of what a fine house of the 1830's in Toronto looked like. We should like to see the Cawthra Mansion, long threatened with demolition, rebuilt adjoining the Grange and put to use as a Historical Museum for the City of

Hon. Secretary

Toronto. At present there is no proper place to house and display the great quantity of valuable material which exists dealing with the history of Toronto and we can think of no place more appropriate than Grange Park.

Equally important is the necessity of endowment funds for the purchase of works of art. There should be, we feel, one general fund and one fund for Canadian Works of Art; without a settled income it is almost impossible for the Committee to make any far reaching plans for its collections. So far all our purchases have been made from capital but the necessity for a more permanent basis is becoming more and more apparent.

Finally the members owe a very great debt to Mr. A. H. Robson, Vice-President, who has acted as my Deputy so many times when affairs have forced me to be absent. I regard him as the main-spring of the Gallery activity and on your behalf tender him our special thanks.

We have begun a good work and kept it moving and growing but as you see there remains still plenty to strive for.

The following are summarized reports of committees:

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

This year a number of minor improvements were carried out in the Grange to provide for the Education Department. The building has, as always, been beautifully kept thanks to Mr. Downard and his staff and the Commissioner of Parks has, through his staff, kept the grounds in good shape. By the end of the summer the damage of the heat wave had been almost completely restored.

THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Art Gallery has maintained its high level of Educational work in 1936, despite the fact that the Educational Department has been without the services of Mr. Lismer since last June and has operated for the autumn months on a curtailed budget. The staff have had a heavy responsibility and have worked admirably together both at the Art Gallery and Art Centre and have warranted the Council's confidence in Mr. Lismer's training. Before his departure for South Africa to engage in educational work under the auspices of that Government and the Carnegie Corporation, Mr. Lismer wrote a small book, published by the Gallery, entitled "Education through Art for Children and Adults at the Art Gallery of Toronto." It sums up the variety and intention of the educational programme which he has developed here and which was extended through the Carnegie Grants.

The lectures each month on the current exhibitions and afternoon Gallery Talks, the musicales and children's entertainments have been continued as in previous years, offering to the members and public generous entertainment and educational opportunities in relation to the changing exhibitions and collections. Members have the advantage of free attendance to the educational programme at all times and a variety of privileges are provided for them and their children. The Educational Department, assisted by the Public Relations Secretary, has interested service and study clubs and associations throughout the city, in coming for their own private views of the Gallery exhibitions. By such contacts the Gallery is becoming a live force in the community for developing a genuine appreciation among all types of people. The "Gallery habit" is becoming as firmly established and as indispensable as the use of the public library to Toronto people.

The gradual reduction of grants has been something the Education Committee has had to face for this season. An effort has been made through our bulletin and monthly notices to make our members aware of the importance of their increased support. It has also been found necessary to bring this to the consciousness of organizations which send groups to the Art Centre, by charging small fees which in event of cessation of the grants must be increased considerably to cover the actual expense.

The Saturday Morning Classes closed in May with an excellent exhibition illustrating the progress and extent of the work with school children of Toronto and its neighbourhood. The best of these children of fourteen years (forty-two in all), were recommended to, and accepted by the Ontario College of Art as scholarship boys and girls in the O.C.A. Saturday morning classes.

In October the Saturday class registration came to 520 with an average weekly attendance up to the end of December of 445.

Two members of the Art Centre staff went to Aurora and Oshawa at the urgent request of sponsors in those towns, to take again the classes established in 1935. These groups have been large and actively supported by certain members of their respective towns.

Summer Classes proved a welcome and happy time for hundreds of youngsters three mornings a week for seven weeks of the summer season.

Teachers of the Department of Education summer courses came in large numbers and were conducted through the Gallery and Art Centre.

Certain clubs and churches, working with children during the summer also sent classes to the Gallery for regular story hours with a member of the staff.

Daily Visits of School Children — Miss Margaret Wilson, appointed by the Board of Education several years ago to take charge of the four classes sent each day from the public schools has continued her work, giving story hours and tours of the Gallery. This plan enables all children of the two Fourth Books and some from the Senior Third to come here twice a year for their early initiation in art appreciation. It may readily be seen how valuable is this early introduction to the Gallery in making it a familiar and interesting place to the rising generation of Toronto citizens.

The Children's Art Centre — at 4 Grange Road. This children's house is the laboratory where a well-trained staff test innumerable methods and materials with children assembled from all quarters of the city. The welfare organizations, settlements and several special schools have been most eager and co-operative in working with us, sending us children and taking a keen interest in the progress of the work.

The Art Centre also serves as a pleasant meeting-place for members and their children. Three adult classes for members in practical study, two nursery groups and two groups for the older children of members, are held there each week.

In addition a Teachers' Practical Course was successfully conducted during the winter months, in order to share with teachers the results of our experiments in techniques with children.

ROSES, PEACHES AND PLUMS—15 x 21¼

By Fantin Latour

The Workers' Educational Association, a part of the Adult Education Association of Canada, again held a class at the Centre once each week, commencing in October, with a large group of intensely interested adults.

The Centre has many groups, smaller in number than the Saturday morning classes, where close supervision and special projects are carried on.

The groups attending in 1936 were from:—

The Bolton Avenue School for Girls	The Edith L. Groves School
The East End Crèche	The University Settlement
Forest Hill Village School	Windy Ridge School
The Russian Catholic Settlement	Women's Literary Club, Victoria College
Teachers' Course	The Workers' Educational Association
11 year League	} Saturday children who come one week day after school in addition to Saturday.
12 year League
13 year League
A-1 League from the Saturday morning class at the Gallery	Practical classes for members
Nursery classes for members' children	Friday afternoon class for members' children

This winter the Saturday morning children of six to eight years had their classes at the Art Centre. Members' children were, of course, admitted but no special Saturday morning class for members' children was held, due to the many weekly opportunities for them, the lack of space with the unexpectedly large registration of school children and reduction in staff. Members' children who wished to come on Saturdays quite happily fitted into the general plan, either at the Gallery or Centre, according to their age.

Members' Groups and Classes—The Gallery has continued to offer members exclusive privileges for themselves and their children. On Thursdays a small group has regularly met Miss Kemp for discussion on current and comparative art topics. At the Centre, adults and children have between them had nine opportunities each week of coming to practical classes with capable and experienced instructors. The nominal fee charged for these classes barely covers the expense of materials.

Lectures, Gallery Talks, Musicales—For eight months of the year 1936, the Educational lectures and similar activities were carried on as usual in relation to the changing exhibitions. The members of the Gallery were given a complete calendar of events in each monthly bulletin. The policy of introducing the current show to the public by at least one free "Review of Exhibitions" evening, has been maintained. Since October, two concerts only have been given owing to a restricted budget.

We take this opportunity to express our thanks to those who have generously contributed lectures, gallery talks and other services to special groups, among whom were: Mr. Charles Comfort, Professor John Alford, Sir Wyly Grier, Mr. Leonard Hutchinson, Mr. Dawson Kennedy, Mr. Carl Schaefer, Mr. Charles Goldhamer, Mr. Lawrence Hyde, Mr. W. F. G. Godfrey, Mrs. H. R. Kemp, Mr. André Lapine, Mrs. Paraskeva Clark, Mr. George Pepper, Miss Marion Long, Mr. L. A. C. Panton, Mr. Fred Brigden, Mr. Peter Haworth and others.

The special afternoon lecture series in March and April dealt this year with English Art and Artists and the lecturers were: Mr. Baldwin on English Architecture of the 18th Century; Professor Longman on the Pre-Raphaelites; Professor MacCallum on Blake; Mr. Jefferys on the English Illustrators; Professor Alford on English Landscape Painters.

The Loan Exhibitions, Library and Slide Collections—The Loan exhibition material has been considerably augmented by carefully chosen posters, block prints and fine reproductions. This service is in continuous demand by schools, clubs, libraries and settlements. Some centres have been borrowing continually for four, five and six years. Members may also borrow without fee. In the case of originals a small charge is made to cover insurance. One hundred and thirty-seven loan exhibitions were lent during the year, an increase of twenty-five over last year.

The Library has been opened on Saturdays with a librarian in charge and those who are interested may come to read or study the files of reference material. Many of the best magazines on art are available to members and the public. The Art Centre Library also takes magazines in direct relation to art teaching and child education. The books in this library are especially recommended to our teacher members.

Lantern slides on Canadian Painting and Sculpture; the History of Art and other particular subjects; well-known popular material for picture study and many religious masterpieces have been well used by members and public. Sets of slides are in continuous demand in Toronto and throughout the province.

Exhibitions of our children's work have been sent to the east and west of Canada, in addition to the many exhibits shown locally. A large exhibition was also sent again this year for circulation in the United States by the Progressive Education Association. These exhibitions have served to interest and encourage the establishing of similar work in a number of other centres namely: Winnipeg, Vancouver, Edmonton, Montreal and St. John where classes have been developed recently, based on our experience.

For details of Education Programme, Exhibitions, attendance, accessions and loans, please refer to statistics, page 15.

EXHIBITION COMMITTEE REPORT

The exhibitions this year included nine organized by Canadian Artist Societies, three arranged by the National Gallery, of which two were Canadian and Mr. R. S. McLaughlin's Canadian Collection; of the others the Van Gogh Paintings attracted the most attention, groups coming to Toronto from all parts of Ontario, Montreal, Rochester and Buffalo. With exhibitions such as this the Print Room was used as a lecture room and hung with reproductions and other explanatory material as an introduction to the exhibition; and found very useful for this purpose.

The Rubens, the Delacroix and the small Constable were sent to New York for cleaning and show a great improvement.

We have lent a number of pictures to other organizations for exhibitions and in this respect we owe a debt of gratitude to those who have consented to lend their paintings to us.

Our new accessions have been most carefully considered and show real progress, especially when our purchasing funds are so limited. A number of works have been presented through the generosity of our friends to whom we tender our thanks and sincere appreciation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The members of the Art Gallery extend their sincere thanks to Mr. R. Y. Eaton for his services as President during the past year, and express their appreciation of his devoted interest in the work of the Art Gallery of Toronto; and to Mr. A. H. Robson, Vice-President, and the Chairmen and Members of the various Committees as follows:

Education, Mr. C. S. Band; Finance, Mr. Frank P. Wood; Membership, Mr. J. W. Baillie; Exhibition, Mr. A. H. Robson; Publicity, Mr. Ivor Lewis; Building and Grounds, Mr. E. R. Rolph; Honorary Secretary, Mr. D. H. McDougall.

The members of the Art Gallery tender their hearty appreciation to the City of Toronto Park's Department and Commissioner Chambers, for his personal attention, also his staff, for their excellent care of the Gallery grounds and gardens during the past year; and to Chief Draper and the officers of the Toronto Police Force for their efficient and willing services rendered when requested.

The members of the Art Gallery of Toronto express to the Carnegie Corporation of New York their thanks and appreciation of the financial support given to the Educational programme during the last five years, without which the programme could only have been carried out to a very limited extent, and the Gallery's hope that permanent local support will be obtained to carry on the work in which both the Art Gallery and the Corporation feel so much interest.

The members of the Art Gallery tender their sincere thanks to those friends of the Gallery who have, by their gifts to the Permanent Collection, not only shown their interest in the Gallery's work but have added to its importance; and to the Museums, Art Galleries, picture dealers and private individuals who have lent pictures or other works of Art to the Art Gallery during the past year.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

The advertising expenditure for 1936 was $146.65 less than the estimated budget of $3,200.00 and $79.25 less than the amount spent in 1935.

The figures are as follows:

1936 budget	$3,200.00
Daily Papers:
Star —3065 lines Globe and
Tely —3065 " Mail— 555 lines
Mail—2510 " Globe —2510 "

Amount Spent in 1935	$3,132.60
" " " 1936	3,053.35
Difference	$ 79.25

The amount of free space received in the daily and weekly papers during the eight months of exhibitions in 1936 was approximately 126 columns as compared with 173 columns in 1935 and 90 columns in 1934.

The publicity includes photographs of pictures and activities, advance news of lectures, exhibitions and musicales, reports of lectures, critics' reviews, news of openings and other social activities, news of acquisitions, interviews with visiting lecturers and feature stories and photographs on the educational work. Thanks are due to all the daily papers and to Saturday Night for the generous amount of space they have given us during the year.

"Toronto From Week to Week," the Toronto Hotel Association publication has given us about a page of reading matter and a photograph with our weekly advertisement. This material is not included in the amount of free publicity stated above.

Before and during the Van Gogh exhibition the following supplementary publicity was arranged. A moving picture news reel made by the Paramount News Company and released at two large moving picture houses and a number of neighbourhood houses in Toronto; displays of Van Gogh prints and books in some of the libraries and book shops; a poster inside the street cars for which we owe thanks to the Toronto Transportation Commission; and special railway excursion rates to Toronto from various points in Ontario, arranged and advertised in connection with the exhibition through the kindness and co-operation of the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railways.

The decrease in the amount of publicity from 1935 can in part be accounted for by the change, in November, from two morning papers to one, i.e., the amalgamation of the Globe and Mail. To supplement this method of reaching the public increased attention was given, during 1936, to direct mail announcements. The results are difficult to estimate at present. Of the 1500 letters sent to schools and organizations, from the publicity department, about 10% were successful in bringing large or small groups to the Gallery or in bringing interested responses which may result in attendance in the future. In some cases organizations have made applications for Gallery affairs as a result of letters sent almost a year previously. For this reason it is difficult to report on how successful this method is, in increasing attendance, but it seems reasonable to suppose that, in the future, the cumulative effect may make it well worth the effort.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

From January 1st to December 31st, 1936, we added to our Membership 404 members and lost 344 — a net gain of 60 Members, the total showing as follows:

Of our losses, 284 are accounted for by resignation, 28 by death, and 33 lapsed.
